Dear Delegates

It gives profound pleasure to extend you the most cordial invitation to participate in the 49th annual session of the Andhra Pradesh History Congress to be held on 9th and 10th Jauary, 2027 at D.K.Government College for Women (A), Nellore. Please make it possible to participate and present a Research paper.

ABOUT NELLORE & DKW COLLEGE

Nellore has a long history that stretches back to the 6th century CE. once ruled by the Pallava and Chola dynasties, Golconda vassals, Nawabs of Arcot and the Vijayanagara Kings. Nellore, which was in the erstwhile Madras State, became a part of Andhra Pradesh in 1956. The Talpagiri Ranganatha Swamy Temple, Irukalala Parameswari Temple, Sri Venugopala Swamy Temple, Mypadu Beach, Pallipadu Pinakini Gandhi Ashram, Jonnawada, Kasumuru Dargah, Somasila, Penchalakona, Krishnapatnam port, Sriharikota, Pulicat lake etc., are the places of interest in Nellore and surroundings.

Dodla Kausalyamma Govt. College for Women (Autonomous) took its birth on 27th June, 1964, owing to the farsighted insight of many citizens of the Town under the visionary leadership of Sri Dodla Subba Reddy. His benevolence in the form of monetary assisstance of rupees 3 lakh kick-started the construction of its own building on a sprawling area of 24.59 acres. Since then many more rooms, blocks of new contructions have been added with a huge Library and Hostel accommodation of two blocks. The College has got its good reputation and recognition due to its good academic excellence.

NAAC Accreditation: A Grade CGPA 3.07

UGC Recognition: 2(f) and 12(b) (17.09.1972)

The College is recognized by UGC as College with Potential for Excellence

The College is recognized by UGC as Autonomous College.
